Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments filed 4/26/2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant's arguments cited on page 8, paragraph 1, lines 1-14 that Jelen neither teaches nor suggests distributing coupons without the interaction of a consumer. This argument is contradicted with the claim limitation cited on page 2, line 18. The claim limitation cited "automatically print said accepted packet in response to said request" which mean distributing coupons upon request of consumer. And Jelen indeed teaches this limitation. Nowhere in the claim cited "distributing coupons without the interaction of a consumer."

As explained in the previous Office Action, Examiner respectfully believes Jelen et al in view of Jones teach all claim limitations recited in claims 1, 2, 5-7, 10, 21-22, therefore, the rejections of claims 1,2, 5-7, 10 and 21-22 stand.

Conclusion

2. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will

Art Unit: 2664
